

An Interview with Master Class Presenter Jazz Pampling

In addition to a half hour live stage demonstration, Jazz Pampling will be sharing her expert knowledge and techniques in a 2 hour exclusive Master Class at NZ Beauty Expo on the 4th & 5th of July 2015 at the ASB Showgrounds in Auckland. We spoke to the brow master about her career, her profession and what knowledge she intends for attendees of her Master Class to walk away with:

What is a day in the life of Jazz Pampling like?

Brows brows brows, I'm very lucky that I love my work. When I am not with clients I am looking at new brow techniques and what is happening in the industry. Usually over several cups of tea.

How did your career begin in the world of beauty?

I started out as a makeup artist. Every time I would do a makeup session for someone, I could never quite finish the brow. It wasn't until I met Rae Morris and she really showed me how important the brow was, that I started learning about the brow.

Do you feel you have achieved all of your goals as a successful brow artist?

I am constantly adding goals and ideas to my work life. I get really excited by my industry. I usually achieve one goal and I am already looking at a new goal, and completely forget that I reached a milestone. Oprah has a great quote (don't you just love Oprah), Don't forget to enjoy the view on your way up the mountain. I think sometimes we forget to enjoy the process of achieving our goals.

What is the most common mistake people make with brows?

When we make a mistake tweezing, we try and chase our mistake to correct it. It is usually best to fill in the hole you have made with some make up, put the tweezers down and step away from the mirror.

What is the most memorable moment you have had while doing celebrity's brows?

The moment a celebrity calls me back. It is one thing to see a celebrity once, it's another to have them call you again. I am always so humbled when people trust me with their brows time and time again. I do remember walking away after my appointment with Naomi Watts and thinking " Wow..... So I just met Naomi Watts! Okay be cool Jazz, BE COOL!"

What is the most common question you get asked by professionals?

How do I keep my clients coming back? – I believe my clients come back because I take my time, I listen, and I keep lines of communication open. These three components ensure I can create the perfect shape for my clients, which, creates trust between the two of us and people appreciate this.

What is the most important skill you hope attendees of your Master Class will walk away with?

Learning to see beyond the brow in order to create the ideal brow shape. In my classes I aim to teach how exactly the brow does frame the face. We so often say that it does, but I don't know that we truly contemplate that phrase. I give as much information as I can to help give students confidence in their approach to brow shaping.

Responsible for shaping the brows of celebrities such as Oscar nominee Naomi Watts and Australian Aboriginal Model Samantha Harris, Jazz Pampling will be sharing her secrets on creating the ideal Brow shape. Women around the world are discovering the importance of maintaining great brows. Jazz will be discussing how we age, how face shape, bone structure, muscle and brow shape work together. She will break the brow down into parts and discuss how to shape the brow, and deal with difficult brows. Jazz's techniques for brow shaping will help you to create great brows for your clients and keep them coming back for more.

Jazz Pampling will be presenting her Master Class at 9.45am - 11.45am Saturday 4 July and 2.00pm - 4.00pm Sunday 5 July. Tickets cost $200 (inc gst) per person and spaces are limited.
